

Driven Toward Madness Chat Discussion Responses

Question: What word or phrase, learning or discovery, will you take forward with you from tonight's conversation?

Responses: Respect Reparations! empathy
Awareness
Resilience
Thank you Dr. Taylor. We need to understand the lives of enslaved women like Margaret Garner.
Persistence
knowledge
Courage of a historian
Awareness
Spiritual Stamina
Self-determination!
See the other as see self Listening humility
I was shocked to hear the word Soul Dead
Strength
humanity
Crying
particularity (slavery is not an abstraction)
Impactful
Thinking of the pain of doing the work of research for Dr. Taylor.
truth
One, we are one!
me shame and hope
Write letter about two articles in diocesan media platform in LA this week that mocked racism as having no consequences
Peace among all of us, to treat everyone as we would want to be treated.
I can change with information bow before those who experience soul "murder"
Women control their bodies!
Ceasing perpetuation
The difficult choice between death and slavery
So moving
Eternal gratitude to our speaker for the sacrifice she made in writing this book

HOPE is being able to see that there is light despite all the darkness what memorable women - both Margaret and Nikki may we be so determined thanks for the beautiful words!

Respect the other

Trauma of migrants

To be an ally in the effort to end racist policies.

Vestiges of slavery in US Prisons today

See the other as God sees them

Dr. Taylor, thank you for your witness, truth, and life reality of victims of human trafficking today also

Thank you Dr. Taylor for you work. Brilliant, well done!!

Amen

Thank you!