FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

“Advent is not about waiting for God to act. Advent is about waking up to where God is already at work and joining God in that work. Staying awake means being prepared to say yes. Yes to justice. Yes to accompaniment. Yes to human dignity. Yes to policies rooted in compassion. Yes to the long and challenging work of peace. And it means standing where Christ stands.”

SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF MARY

“Mary’s yes was not only personal - it was social. Her faith became a refuge where the Word took flesh. In the same spirit, our ‘yes’ in this Advent can become a refuge for the migrant, for those seeking home, for those still waiting... This Advent, when fear walks our streets again and raids attempt to silence hope, our practices must become acts of justice.
